NEWS RELEASE
27 JAN 2011

For Immediate Release—Seven Chelan FFA members attended the 212° Virtues Leadership and 360° Vision Leadership Conference held at the Wenatchee Valley College on Saturday and Sunday January 22nd and 23rd.

The overarching objectives of the 212 conference exposed freshman and sophomore members to compare virtues and values; determine personal and core virtues; compare daily decisions to core virtues and implement the key to good decision making; create smart goals relating to our virtues; and develop a plan for action and choose an accountability partner for living out individual virtues. The overarching objectives of the 360 conference included: define vision and the vision process; implement the vision process while evaluating their chapter's needs based on the three areas of the Program of Activities; develop a plan to enhance their chapter by addressing the student, chapter and community needs; and identify tools to mobilize others to action.

The Chelan member who attended the event were Freshmen Apolinar Blanco and Lauren Stocker; Sophomore Lupe Villasenor; Juniors Robert Ihlandfeldt and Elle Vold; and Seniors Sammi Jo Cool and Jorge Villasenor. They along over 100 other FFA members from around the state attended this event.

The Chelan members will put on workshops for the remaining members of the Chelan FFA at the FFA Leadership Retreat on February 9th held at Echo Valley. The entire chapter will spend the day working on the Chapter Program of Activities, training for Career Development Events and doing team building activities.
